The Brand

Brand Concept

Engineering students in Nigeria struggle to secure SIWES and internship placements because opportunities are scattered across WhatsApp groups, personal networks, lecturers and company websites.

Fixth provides a centralized platform where engineering students discover verified SIWES placement opportunities and companies recruit suitable candidates through a structured application process.

Brand Vision

To build the most trusted platform connecting engineering students with engineering companies for SIWES, industrial training, internships, and future graduate opportunities.

Brand Tone

Helpful	Guiding students through a stressful process.
Modern	Built for today’s digital generation.
Reliable	Students and companies can trust the platform
Optimistic	Focused on opportunities and growth.
Professional	Credible enough for organizations and institutions
